Turin, Nov. 19. N. S.

OUR Duke is still at Crescentino, and intends to continue there as long as the Enemy's Troops remain in the Field, having disposed the Quarters of his own Forces in such manner, that he can in a very short time draw them together upon any occasion: And to the that he may not find himself obliged to disperse his Horse, a large Magazine of Forage and other Provisions is erecting at Chivazzo for their Subsistence. The Enemy hath also been obliged to send his Horse into Quarters, which were no longer able to keep the Field, by reason of the great Rains we have lately had, which have very much retarded the Siege of Vercus; But we have an Account from thence, That the Weather not being at present so wet as it has been of late, the French have, with no little Loss and Pains, planted 14 Pieces of Cannon and 6 Mortars upon their Batteries, which began to play on the 17th Instant; but that their Miners have been able to make but very little Progress; and that abundance of their Men fall sick every day, through the great Hardships they undergo, as well by the badness of the Season, as by the want of Provisions and other Necessaries.

Venice, December 6. The Imperial Forces under the Command of Count Leiningen continue at Salo, and the French Troops under the Grand-Prior at Dezenzano, and they are intrenching themselves on both sides. A German Party of 100 Horse has lately seized a Convoy of Provisions which was going to the French Quarters, having totally routed the Party that guarded it. Letters from Constantinople of the 10th of the last Month say, That the Grand Signior has displaced his Grand-Vizier, and has preferred the Bassa of Candia to that Employment; and that the Turks had sent divers Gallies with Forces on Board towards the Black-Sea, and had made other Preparations, whereby it should seem that they have Thoughts of coming to a Rupture with the Muscovites.

Vienna, Dec. 6. Colonel Tyller arrived here this Morning from Hungary, having left General Heister yesterday at Zitzendorf in Austria, about a German Mile on this side the Mark, where it is believed he will continue till he has been reinforced by two Imperial Regiments of Horse, which are daily expected here from Linz. It is said, That the Count de Montecuculi is marched from Espers with a Body of 3000 Men towards Tirnan, in order to attempt the Relief of that Place, which is besieged by the Malecontents, and afterwards to join General Heister. General Herberstein, with another Body of the Emperor's Forces, is near Weisselburg. The Town of Passau being now again in the Emperor's Possession, Cardinal Lamberg intends in a day or two to return to his Residence there. The Queen of the Romans's Departure for Nieubaus in Bohemia, where she intends to meet the King, is said to be fixed for the 10th Instant.

Ratisbon, Dec. 11. The Bavarian Garison at Ingolstadt marched out of that Place the 7th Instant, and 2000 Imperialists entered into the Town, who are to continue there under the Command of the Count de Montfort. There were found in the Place a great number of Pieces of Brass Cannon, and great quantities of Ammunition. This being the strongest Place that remained in the Possession of the Bavarians, it is not doubted but the other Towns, which are yet in their Hands, will be forthwith evacuated, in pursuance of the Treaty lately concluded between the Emperor and the Electores of Bavaria. The Cardinal de Lamberg is shortly expected at Passau, and, as is said, will soon after return hither, to assist as formerly at the Imperial Diet, in the Quality of the Emperor's First Commissioner.

Berlin, Dec. 13. On the 7th Instant Te Deum was sung here for the taking of Landau. Monsieur Prebendow, who lately arrived here with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary from the Crown and Republick of Poland, is going from hence to wait upon the King his Master at Dresden. Our last Letters from Poland say, That the King of Sweden's Army continued in Quarters of Refreshment in the Greater Poland, but would shortly go into Winter Quarters in the Polish Prussia.

Triers, Dec. 12. The Siege of Traerbach is carried on with all the Vigour imaginable; and we hope in few days to be in Possession of that Place. Several Deserters, who are come over to us from the Garison, confirm the News of the Governor and several other Officers being killed, which will probably forward its Surrender. A Detachment of the Confederate Forces being lately sent towards Blies-Cassel, to possess themselves of that Castle, for the greater Security of their Winter Quarters on this side, the French Garison abandoned the Place upon their Approach. Three Regiments of Hussars arrived here yesterday from Landau, which, as is said, will be sent into Quarters towards Saarbourg.

Francfort, December 14. The King of the Romans passed by Nuremberg the 10th Instant in his way to Vienna. The Confederate Forces in these Parts continue their March into Winter Quarters. General Thungen is appointed to command the Forces which are to be employed this Winter to guard the Imperial Lines at Biehl and Stalhoffen.

Cologne, December 16. The Elector Palatine returned the 12th Instant to Dusseldorp. Count Zinzendorf, the Emperor's Envoy, is gone thither to wait upon his Electoral Highness, intending afterwards to proceed to Liege.

Hague, Dec. 19. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Mariborough intends to go for England next week. The Marshal de Tallard, and the other French Officers that are to be carried over thither, are expected the 22d Instant at Rotterdam from Aix la Chapelle, in order to their embarking. The Marquis de Prie is lately arrived here with the Character of Envoy from the Duke of Savoy, and is very pressing with the States to send speedy Succours to the Duke his Master, which in all probability will be complied with. General Dopff is returned hither from Triers; from whence we have
